Training And Placement Cell

The Training and Placement Cell is an essential part of any college as it plays a key role in preparing students for their professional careers. It serves as a bridge between the academic environment and the corporate world by providing guidance, skill development, and job opportunities. The cell organizes various training sessions, workshops, and seminars to enhance students' soft skills, technical knowledge, and interview readiness. It also facilitates internships and placements by connecting students with reputed companies and industries. By doing so, the Training and Placement Cell not only helps students secure good job offers but also contributes to the overall reputation and success of the institution.

Duties of the Members:

- Training Coordination: Organize workshops, soft skills sessions, and technical training programs to enhance student employability.
- Industry Liaison: Establish and maintain relationships with companies and recruiters to invite them for campus placements and internships.
- Student Support: Guide students on resume writing, interview techniques, and career planning through one-on-one or group sessions.
- Placement Process Management: Plan and execute all placement-related activities, including scheduling interviews, pre-placement talks, and follow-ups.
- Data Management: Maintain an up-to-date database of student profiles, placement statistics, and recruiter feedback.
